Introduction:

Excursion gives us the opportunity to see & to know a lot such as history of a place, it's culture & cuisine, within a short time frame. The purpose of this site is to provide information related to local or international tourists' destinations. When someone is planning trips to where they are not familiar with, they may need to look into them. This website could be a platform to displace destination management companies that provides local travel services.

One will be able to reserve transportation, day tour services, hotels, etc. through this website.
